

KS1

Curriculum Science

The principle focus of science teaching in key stage 1 is to enable pupils to experience and observe scientifically and learn about the world around them. At Stanstead, the children have many opportunities to experience different types of scientific enquiries, including practical activities where lessons are hands-on and children are challenged and encouraged to explore.