

Science Upper Key Stage 2

Science is taught by children engaging in investigations which are aimed to encourage the children to develop a more enquiring mind and attitude to the world around them. Children are encouraged to develop their own thoughts and ideas about how things work and to then test these in a variety of different ways. Lessons are planned to be 'hands on' where children are encouraged to test their own hypothesis and are taught how to plan their own investigations.